

COURSE SYLLABUS & FEES · 2026

Certificate Course in Medical Writing (CCMW) in Pune

iLearn CRI's 3-month Medical Writing course in Pune covers protocols, CSR writing, manuscripts, regulatory submissions, and publication writing — taught by practicing medical writers with placement support.

DURATION	MODE	FEES	EMI
3 months	Live online & classroom (Pune)	₹40,000 + 18% GST	Available

Eligibility

B.Pharm, M.Pharm graduates
B.Sc / M.Sc in Life Sciences, Biotechnology, Microbiology
BDS, BHMS, BAMS, BPT graduates
MBBS graduates with research interest
Strong English language skills required (writing test at admission)

Complete syllabus, module by module

01 Introduction to Medical Writing

Medical writing landscape: regulatory, scientific, promotional, educational Career pathways: regulatory writer, scientific writer, publication specialist
Indian and global medical writing market in 2026
ICMJE authorship guidelines and GPP3 publication ethics
Writing quality frameworks and self-review techniques

02 Regulatory Writing (Protocols, CSRs, IB)

Clinical Study Report (CSR) — ICH E3 structure and hands-on writing
Clinical Trial Protocol writing — SPIRIT guidance
Investigator's Brochure (IB) — ICH E6 structure
Common Technical Document (CTD) module summaries
Plain-language summaries for trial transparency

03 Clinical & Scientific Writing

IMRaD structure for scientific manuscripts
Active voice, sentence-level clarity, and plain language principles
Statistical reporting standards and data presentation
Tables, figures, and visual abstract design
EQUATOR Network standards: CONSORT, STROBE, PRISMA

04 Manuscripts & Publication Writing

Targeting journals: impact, scope, and audience
Cover letters and submission strategy
Peer review response letters and revision management
Conference abstracts and poster design
Plagiarism and AI-content detection and disclosure

05 Safety Narratives & PV Documents

Patient narratives for SAEs: structure and content requirements
DSUR (Development Safety Update Report) structure
PSUR / PBRER writing and review
Risk Management Plans: writing and content standards
MedDRA terminology usage in narrative writing

06 Patient-facing / Lay Documents

Lay summaries for clinical trials: EU and US requirements
Patient information sheets and consent language
Plain language principles for non-specialist audiences
Patient education materials and disease guides
Readability scoring and lay document testing

07 Style Guides, Tools & Quality Review

AMA Manual of Style, APA, and sponsor style guide application
MS Word advanced: styles, cross-references, tables of contents
Reference managers: EndNote, Mendeley, Zotero
PleaseReview and Veeva Vault Quality Docs overview
AI-assisted writing — appropriate use and disclosure
Version control, comment management, and timeline adherence

Career outcomes

ROLE	AVERAGE CTC
Medical Writer (Trainee)	₹ 3.6–4.5 LPA
Associate Medical Writer	₹ 4.5–6.5 LPA
Regulatory Medical Writer	₹ 5.5–8.0 LPA
Publication / Manuscript Writer	₹ 5.0–7.5 LPA
Senior Medical Writer (3–5 yrs)	₹ 9.0–14.0 LPA
Freelance Medical Writer	₹ 6.0–18.0 LPA (variable)

Placement support built in 100% placement assistance for every student: resume calibration, mock interviews with practicing professionals, and direct introductions to 50+ pharma & CRO hiring partners. Average starting CTC across placements: ₹4.2L. Separate live online and classroom batches — same curriculum, same fees, same support.

Apply / ask a question: WhatsApp +91 80559 86767 · info@ilearncri.com · ilearncri.com/admissions/